

Website Suggestions for Teaching Practices

Set up a link that indicates that you are a Teaching Practice. You can say you are affiliated with McMaster University, Midwifery Education Program, Department of Family Medicine.

Within that link you can have 2 options:

Information for Clients This link can include information from the MEP pamphlet. What does it mean to have a student involved in your care.

Information for Students Welcome to students Practice details: university affiliation, hospitals, catchment area, satellite offices, proportion of homebirths, special needs populations, TOC rate *scope of practice (primary care for IOL; epidurals, oxytocin augmentation)
* off call arrangements
*number of NR positions
*usual number of students (senior and NCB)
*anything unique about your practice

Instructions for students:
*preference for where students should live (within 30 min of hospital)
*what you would like in a student bio of introduction to clients *communication apps used *expectations, opportunities *off call time; workload estimates, fatigue policies

Statement of Teaching Philosophy (this does not need to be fancy. It can include a statement that you enjoy teaching and are committed to the growth of midwifery. You hope to offer an excellent learning experience with exceptional preceptors and learning opportunities).
