

I believe that midwives have an incredible opportunity to advocate and support clients beyond pregnancy and delivery. I hope that one day the midwifery scope of practice will continue to grow and incorporate all aspects of reproductive care and be able to support people in even larger ways.

-Elana Robern, senior year midwifery student-