

“I was drawn to the continuity of care model that midwives use and the high degree of client-centered care that midwifery fosters. Midwifery allows me to combine my passion for helping others with my fascination with pregnancy and birth, all while providing clients with the best possible care.”

-Quinn Horne, Midwifery Student